

Dedicated to
The Man that was sent and the Boy that went

The Boy That Went

Words by
Dr. K.P. Crowninshield
Music by George Lowell Tracy

— Published by —
C.W. THOMPSON & Co.
219 Park St.
BOSTON—MASS.

THE BOY THAT WENT

Words by
Dr. K. P. CROWNINSHIELD

Music by
GEORGE LOWELL TRACY

Marziale

VOICE

PIANO

ff mf molto marc.

The man that was sent and the boy that went, Shoul-der to shoul-der on the bat-tle-field they met, The man that was sent and the boy that went, And clasp-ing their bayonets with the sharpened steel, Pledged each other in faithful zeal. To

rit. mp

rit.

poco agitato

stand by the col-ors the Red, White and Blue, It's the flag of our Na-tion, we will

Slower

ev-er prove true, True, like the he-ros who have mold-ed a-way, Who rall. p sosten.

recit.ten.

gave their life's blood in the fray of the day. And Cheers! And colla voce ff

rall.Tempo 1º

Cheers! for the man that was sent and the boy that went.

Marcia con spirito

To - day we are fighting for jus - tice you see, We shall con-quer the foe on land and on sea, When the f cresc.

f

war and strife are ended, And the can-non cease to roar, We'll meet with happy greet-ing on

at fine

dear New England's shore, We'll meet with happy greet-ing on dear New England's shore.

ten. ad lib. ten.

ff colla voce

